WELCOME TO THE CORGI® SEPTEMBER TO DECEMBER 2023 RANGE!

WELCOME TO THE FINAL CORGI® catalogue launch of 2023, featuring all of our new announcements due to arrive between September and December.

This edition features new releases across our collector ranges, including the first chance to buy our brand-new tool of the fantastic Ford Mustang Mk6 and another chance to grab our sold-out Ford Focus Mk3 ST in the Vanguards range, as well as several long-requested returns to the Aviation Archive range including the Fairey Swordfish and Canberra, plus the arrival of our new tool BAE Harrier II in 1:48 scale.

This range announcement also features several new additions to our entertainment licenced products, with one of the biggest being our long-awaited return to the Final Frontier with a new range of models from the Star Trek universe. Plus, ahead of the eagerly anticipated release of our new tool model of Stingray next year, our Gerry Anderson range expands with the return of iconic vehicles from Captain Scarlet. Music gets a look in as well with the launch of our Heavy Metal Trucks range featuring vehicles liveried in tribute to the legendary bands Motorhead and Iron Maiden. Previously announced new arrivals include our first Wallace & Gromit products created in collaboration with the team at Aardman, as well as the much anticipated 1:12 scale recreation of the iconic Triumph Trophy TR6 as featured in The Great Escape.

As always, make sure to keep an eye on the Die-Cast Diaries blog on corgi.co.uk for exclusive first looks at all of the products revealed within these pages as they approach release, and we'll be back in January 2024 with a new edition of this catalogue featuring even more new product reveals and announcements!

THE AVIATION ARCHIVE

The Aviation Archive range features high quality die-cast aircraft models produced in both 1:72 and 1:48 scales. Newly designed packaging styles highlight each model's place in real-world history, enabling collectors both new and old to easily identify areas of interest while expressing the sheer span and scope of the aviation world. Each aircraft comes with a display stand and many have optional parts enabling the model to be posed either in flight or stationary with the undercarriage down.

As promised in our previous announcement catalogue, several long absent Aviation Archive models are rejoining the range this year. In July we announced the much-requested Canberra would be returning in a surprise reveal at the Royal International Air Tattoo, and now another much loved aircraft is back - the Fairey Swordfish. We've also created some new components to produce a long-awaited Messerschmitt Me 109-E nightfighter.

Progress continues apace on our new tool B-26 Marauder in 1:72 scale, and Panavia Tornado GR1/4 in 1:48 scale – you can expect pre-orders to open for both in the new year. Ahead of those and due in the next few months is our new tool BAE Harrier II in 1:48 scale, returning one of the most iconic aircraft ever to fly to the CORGI® range in spectacular form.

Vanguards™

The history of CORGI® is built on model cars, and the Vanguards range continues that legacy today with a range of 1:43 scale model cars that span the decades. The backstory, livery, special features and statistics of every Vanguard model are meticulously researched to bring the most accurate replicas to the market. Every model is secured to a removable display plinth and presented in a high quality Perspex display box, with each release including a limited edition numbered certificate which details the full fascinating history of the vehicle concerned.

This catalogue debuts the brand-new tool Ford Mustang MK6 into the Vanguards range – one of the most legendary vehicles produced by Ford, this release recreates one of the Mach 1 UK press cars that Ford has used for media reviews. Making a welcome return after selling out on arrival at the beginning of the year is the Ford Focus Mk3 ST in striking Race Red, and a long-awaited Mini Cooper 1275GT finally joins the range.

Development work continues on our newly tooled Ford Capri MkII, which you can expect to see in the range next year – and we are already hard at work on new and unannounced new tooling projects that will be revealed in January!
